“I am very excited to be joining CEFC Manor TRS Racing for the 2017 WEC season. After my brief participation with the team last year, I really felt at home. I am thankful for the opportunity with the team and I am feeling very motivated for the season ahead.

I am looking forward to being part of the very competitive LMP2 field and I believe we should be in a good position so that we can achieve the best results possible. I can't wait for the season to start.”
